

Autumn Term 2

Ancient Greek Myths

Turn a myth into a cartoon strip. For example, Theseus and the Minotaur.

Use speech bubbles or write a dialogue under the pictures.

Greek vases

In Ancient Greece they used to store food and drinks in vases, which sometimes depicted famous events. Your task is to pick a famous event in Ancient Greek history and design your own Greek vase. Label it and say why you chose that particular event.

Greek Battles

Athens and Sparta were both Greek city states which were very different. They fought each other constantly and their most famous battle was called The Battle of Marathon. Our modern day marathon is named after this event. Research and write a diary entry from the point of view of a man called Pheidippides, a Greek soldier.

Spartan's go to battle!

Design or make a Spartan helmet or shield.

How will you ensure it will keep you safe in battle?

Ancient Greece Fashions

What did the Ancient Greeks make their clothes from? Did the rich and poor people wear similar clothes?

Draw a picture of what they wore. Label your picture.

Roman Numerals

The Romans developed a simple way of showing numbers.

Roman Numerals 1 - 20
1	I	11	XI
2	II	12	XII
3	III	13	XIII
4	IV	14	XIV
5	V	15	XV
6	VI	16	XVI
7	VII	17	XVII
8	VIII	18	XVIII
9	IX	19	XIX
10	X	20	XX

Where do we still use Roman Numerals today? Can you take photos of what you find?

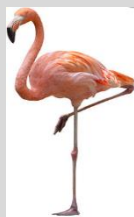

Roman Mosaics

The floors of Roman buildings were richly decorated with mosaics.

Can you design your own mosaic floor for the class room? You could draw or paint your design.

Banquets

The rich Romans loved a banquet! Some Roman food you might have difficulty getting hold of including dormice, flamingos, garum (a sauce made out of fish guts and blood), giraffe and jellyfish!

Design a menu that could be served to a rich Roman and their guests at a banquet.

Mystery Home Learning Task:

Use your imagination and come up with an idea of your own which you can share with the class
