

Consequences—Mary Stanford

Key Questions: Can something good come from a tragedy? What was the impact on the town of Rye? What was the wider impact? Could it have been avoided? Does history always tell the whole story?

Geography Locational Knowledge: name and locate geographical regions and their identifying human and physical characteristics.

Concepts:

change, development, risk, choices, impact of your choices on others, families' livelihoods, loyalties, selflessness, empathy, coping with and learning from tragedy.

Key texts:

'Mary Stanford' Disaster: The Story of a Life-boat Cautionary Tales: 'The Walrus and the Carpenter' by Lewis Carroll, 'The Spider and the Fly' by Mary Howitt

Key vocabulary: hero, duty, courage, community, impact, accountability

And wherever our journey takes us ...