

Equality

Is poverty natural or created?

Key questions:

Is poverty in Africa natural or created? Why aren't farmers in Africa rich? Can one person change the world? Why is there inequality?

Key concepts:

Equality, Racism, Poverty

Key vocabulary:

Greed, starvation, endangered, inequality, fairness, prejudice, trade, survival, racism, fair trade.

Key texts:

Wangari Maathai—The Woman Who Planted Millions of Trees by Frank Prevot
Bringing the Rain to Kapiti Plain by V. Aardema.
Wangari's Trees of Peace by Jeanette Winter
Mama Miti by Donna Jo Napoli

Geography:

- Identify seasonal and daily weather patterns in the United Kingdom and the location of hot and cold areas of the world in relation to the Equator and the North and South Poles
- Use maps, atlases, globes and digital/computer mapping to locate countries and describe features studied.

History:

The lives of significant individuals in the past who have contributed to national and international achievements.

Art:

Artist focus – illustrator Aurélia Fronty.
Exploring African Art.

And wherever our journey takes us...