The Boy, The Mole, The Fox and The Horse

As we slip into the second half of the Autumn term, I am going to make a recommendation. Please find the time to share Charlie Mackesy's book 'The Boy, the Mole, the Fox and the Horse' with your children –if you haven't already...

As you know, I love this book and am so excited that he has finished the audio version. More importantly, I think it is the perfect tonic for this time of year.

Mr Vallier

Our Oscar Winners So Far...

Congratulations to Amelie, Cody, Ethan, Ailsa, Joey, Theo, Jodie, Finlay – and Mrs Lamper!

Virtual Sports

“Let’s stay active and connected!”

Whilst unable to compete in local sport events, Shoreham Academy have created the ‘Shoreham Virtual Games’. Every month a virtual task will be released to the local schools. Those challenges have been created by Shoreham Academy staff and sports leaders, as well teachers and students from local primary schools.

Every student is encouraged to try and complete the challenge, Points are awarded for both student successes and student participation. These points are submitted into a league table. Our aim at Shoreham Beach is to be top of this table and win the league!

In school we will also be celebrating individual successes with certificates and stickers.

So far, we have completed the Running and Hopping Challenge. The children really enjoyed taking part and were especially pleased to beat their original times! We will keep you posted with how well we are doing in our locality.

Mrs Thomas

E-Safety

Usually at this time of year Mr Winstone gives an E-Safety presentation to parents as part of the curriculum meetings. Unfortunately due to the current situation we are unable to hold our usual meetings but we have added the presentation to the school website. You can find it here:

Hot meals

Chartwells have confirmed that hot meals will only be available for Key Stage 1 and for Key Stage 2 children in receipt of Free School Meals

Parents' Consultation Evenings

This year the autumn parent consultation evenings will be taking place on the 17th and 19th November 3.30-6.00pm. These meetings will be held via Microsoft Teams.

A letter detailing everything will be going out later this week.

Cheal Close

Thank you to all of you that are abiding by social distancing guidelines and those who are no longer driving up Cheal Close – this has made things a lot safer for children and families. Please can this continue.

Year 6 Poems

The wind blowing wildly
Crisp.
The flickering dark leaves
Falling gently from the trees

Fred (Year 6)

The last hour of October
Desolate
Grabbing trees
The moon was an encumbrance
Sun undetected
The last candle blown out.

Amelie (Year 6)

Silver cobwebs were glistening with dew
The sky
Murky, no longer joyful
Ghostly winds swept at crispy leaves
The village awakened

Daisy B (Year 6)

The last leaf falls
A gust of autumn wind
The amber shadow that casts over
The souls of memories
Left to rot
A new start
Dew drops leak from the window at dawn
The sinister draw of the moon

Purdy (Year 6)

Peculiar strings of light
Tearing down above you
The illuminated town stood and watched
As the lightning struck its terror

Harry W (Year 6)

Summer has come
 Glossy grasses free from the frosted torture
 Muted greens and soft whites
 The heat of the sun leaks through the misted clouds
 Hands to your eyes shielding
 Deckchairs bathe in the lights
 Pastel cotton drapes over the wooden frame
 Desolate and calming
 Warmth soaks your skin

Purdy (Year 6)

The mist
 Resting on the waves, trapping them
 The waves
 Colliding dramatically, smashing, pondering
 If the stone wall is sturdy enough
 To keep the powerful beast out

Egregious white horses
 Attempt to sabotage the pier
 Unsuccessful
 They only manage to drench it
 Warrior-like waves, swallowing the land
 Mesmerising.

Daisy B (Year 6)

The bothered weather shows its anger
 The gloomy mist travels through the skies
 Leaving fog in their footsteps
 The luminous windows try to spread light
 But the dull skies don't give in

Zachary (Year 6)

Flashes in the misty grey clouds
 Speed in full colour
 As the electrical streams
 Search for an end.

Harry B (Year 6)

Shattering bullets
 Gushing through the monstrous rain
 Heaving onto the earth.
 The revolting rain launches onto buildings
 The transparent rain rages onto shiny cars
 The stamina in the rain is enough to power a power station
 Rain flooded boots.

Dylan R (Year 6)
