

Greed or Starvation

Key Texts:

Wangari Maathai—The Woman Who Planted Millions of Trees
Wangari's Trees of Peace
Mama Miti
Lila and the Secret of the Rain

Humanities

I can locate Africa in an atlas
I can explore similarities and differences in places that we live
I can understand different cultures
I can name some people who have played an important part in History
I can understand the term deforestation.

Art

I can create art inspired by the illustrations in Wangari Maathai—The woman who planted millions of Trees
I can use tempera techniques.

PSHCE

To know where chocolate comes from.
If we spend so much money on chocolate in the UK why aren't farmers in Africa rich?

Is poverty in Africa natural or created?

Science

I can explain why plants are so important to us and our lives.
I can understand what plants need to grow.

Maths

I can add and subtract two digit numbers
I can recognise number bonds to 100
I can answer reasoning and problem solving questions.
I can continue to learn my 10, 5, 2 and 3 times tables
I can share and group items in multiplication and division
I can understand the term inverse.
I can measure using cm and m.

PE

I can understand the importance of team work.

English

I can listen and respond appropriately to adults and peers
I can ask relevant questions to extend understanding and knowledge
Articulate answers and opinions.
I can use spoken language to develop understanding through exploring ideas
I can make inferences
I can consider what I am going to write before beginning by: planning or saying out loud what I am going to write about.

DT and Music

I can make a musical Instrument
I can create and perform a weather chant.

Computing

I can take photographs.

RE

I understand what Christians do when they go to church.