

Research Refugee art – either copy a piece or create your own, remember it doesn't have to be on a piece of paper it could be 3D!

A Safe Place to Land

Song by Sara Bareilles

Listen to this piece of music <https://youtu.be/Ht2NCrIghS4>. Then look at the lyrics on <https://www.azlyrics.com/lyrics/sarabareilles/asafeplacetoland.html> Create a piece of work to respond to the music. You could write some of the lyrics up, decorate them using imagery of how you feel when you listen to it. Or something else entirely.

Research real stories told by refugees, there's lots on the Amnesty International site, the Red Cross and Create a video diary as one of the people you have read about. How did they feel? What did they do?

Use a world map and the internet to highlight 5 or more countries where refugees have had to flee from and where they travel to.

<https://www.freeworldmaps.net/printable/> Describe why they have had to leave their country. This website may help.

Research the various charities that support Refugees, migrants and assylum seekers. Design a poster advertising what they do. Can you think of a fund raiser we could do to help raise money? We could choose one idea towards the end of the term.

Create a dance that depicts a refugees journey and experience. Think carefully about the music you choose and the movements you include. Get someone to video the finished piece.

Create a Nature Journal. Have a look at the images from the book, 'Secrets of a Devon Wood, my nature journal' by Jo Wood. Can you find things to draw, items to stick in, some rubbings, write observations of things you see and anything else you find interesting in nature.

Mystery Task: Use your imagination and come up with an idea of your own.
