

You might like to extend your Learning Journey at home by...

Reading.....

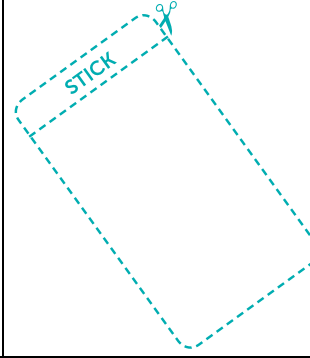

Watching.....

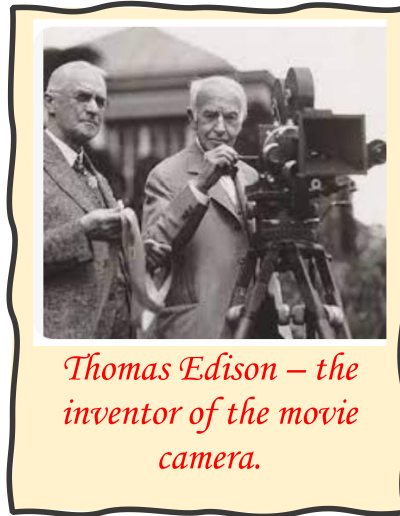

Or any of the films based on the books opposite

Plan out the storyline for your flick book, making sure to keep most of the action in the bottom right hand corner. Keep your story simple and make sure you tell the story entirely through your drawing. Something quick and easy works well, like a bouncing ball or a jumping frog.

Visiting.....

- The Cinema Museum
<http://www.cinemamuseum.org.uk/>
- British Film Institute
<https://www.bfi.org.uk/bfi-southbank>
- The Science Museum
<https://www.sciencemuseum.org.uk/home>
- London Film Tour
<https://www.intotheblue.co.uk/experiences/london-film-walk/>

Thomas Edison – the inventor of the movie camera.

Find out about....

Film poster template

A film poster will usually have one photograph or still image from the film as a background image for the entire poster

Often the lead cast members are credited above the title

THE FILM TITLE WILL BE BOLD AND NOTICEABLE

The date the film is out in cinemas

"Sometimes a quote from a review or a star rating is included",
Person, Company

At the bottom you will find credits for:

The studio name, producer, script writer, lead actors, "Film title", music composer, costume design, editor, production design, cinematographer, executive producer, producer, story writer, screen writer and director...

in that order